

History. Acts 1989, No. 98, p. 3.

6-61-112, Students called into military service.

(a) When any person is activated for full-time military service during an time of national crisis and therefore is required to cease attending a state-supported postsecondary educational institution without completing and receiving a grade in one (1) or more courses, the following assistance shall be required with regard to courses not completed:

(1) Such student shall receive a complete refund of tuition and such general fees as are assessed against all students at the institution.

(A) Proportionate refunds of room, board, and other fees which were paid to the institution shall be provided to the student, based on the date of withdrawal.

(B) If an institution contracts for services covered by fees which have been paid by and refunded to the student, the contractor shall provide a like refund to the institution.

(2) If the institution has a policy of repurchasing textbooks, students shall be offered the maximum price, based on condition, for the textbooks associated with such courses.

(b) When a student is required to cease attendance because of such military activation without completing and receiving a grade in one (1) or more courses, the institution shall provide a reasonable opportunity for completion of the courses after deactivation.

(c) A student activated during the course of a semester shall be entitled, within a period of two (2) years following deactivation, to free tuition for one (1) semester at the institution where attendance had been interrupted unless federal aid is made available for the same purpose.

History. Acts 1991, No. 810, pp 1-3.